

6 WHAT NOT TO MISS

GREAT INTERACTIONS

National Media Museum, Bradford

UNTIL 10 APRIL

 Photographer Polly Braden spent two years working with the charity MacIntyre, which provides learning, support and care for more than 1,500 children, young people and adults with a learning disability and/or autism. Her photographs capture the everyday moments, achievements and milestones that organisations such as MacIntyre help make possible. 'From the friendly chat at the supermarket checkout to that encouraging smile or cup of tea from a work colleague when you're having a bad day, these small interactions make a big impact on our wellbeing,' Braden explains. 'For people with a learning disability and autism, these interactions are even more fundamental to their quality of life.' bit.ly/pollybraden

RPS NORTH WEST PRINT EXHIBITION

Pyramid Arts Centre, Warrington

UNTIL 30 APRIL

 Enjoy some of the best prints from Society members in the North West Region. RPS Gold, Silver and Bronze medals and certificates will be issued to the first, second and third-placed prints, as chosen by the judges. bit.ly/rpsnorthwest

HARRY GAMMER-FLITCROFT

National Waterfront Museum, Swansea

UNTIL 13 MARCH

 Recipient of the 2015 Jane Phillips Award graduate residency, his work includes subjects as diverse as the banal ways we deal with death, the photographic industry and submarine communication cables. bit.ly/harrygammer

IPSWICH AND DISTRICT PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY

The Council Chamber, Town Hall Galleries, Ipswich

1-12 MARCH

 Annual exhibition of prints and projected images from one of East Anglia's biggest photographic societies, founded in 1888 and with more than 100 members. Expect a diverse body of work (closed Sunday and Monday). idps.org.uk

WOLF SUSCHITZKY'S LONDON

The Photographers' Gallery, London

UNTIL 6 MARCH

 Born in Vienna in 1912, the veteran documentary photographer has long been fascinated by his adopted city of London. This exhibition showcases vintage prints, iconic images and previously unseen work from the 1930s and 40s. bit.ly/wolfondon

QUARRIED

Buxton Museum and Art Gallery

UNTIL 10 APRIL

 Large-scale colour photographs of the quarries and works around Buxton in the Peak District, taken by Colin Shaw ARPS. 'Quarries have their own stark beauty, and are an integral part of an inhabited, working landscape,' Shaw explains. bit.ly/shawquarried
